

The Struggle Against Racism in our City

What to Do? What is our UU Role?

A presentation by guest Rev. Joe Ellwanger, followed by discussion

First Unitarian Society of Milwaukee

How do mostly white churches like ours relate to today's civil rights struggles and Black Lives Matter?

Join us for a presentation by Rev. Joe Ellwanger and a discussion of his concept of "Ministry of Accompaniment" described in his recently published book. He has been involved in civil rights for over five decades and was pastor of Milwaukee's Cross Lutheran Church for 34 years.

Sponsored by FUSM Social Justice Council and Black Lives Matter at FUSM.

Rev. Ellwanger's well-reviewed 2014 book describes his insights and experiences.

Rev. Ellwanger's book is available at our bookstore and at Amazon (both new and used.) We recommend you read the first chapter beforehand. It describes his idea of "Ministry of Accompaniment." Sign up at the FUSM Social Justice Table or sign up on Eventbrite www.Eventbrite.com – search for the event "The Struggle Against Racism in Milwaukee: What to Do, What is our UU Role?" We will send you a copy of chapter 1 by email.
