

WHERE THE CANDIDATES STAND ON THE ISSUES

THE ISSUES:	SCOTT WALKER:	TONY EVERS:
MINING: “Prove It First” was the law that required new sulfide mines to prove that a similar mine had been operated and closed without significant pollution or other environmental damage.	Signed legislation ending “Prove It First” and opened the door to risky mining ventures	Supports a return to “Prove It First”
CRIMELESS REVOCATION: The practice of sending people on Supervision back to prison for a rule violation, even if they have not committed a new crime.	Has sent an average of about 3,000 people to prison, for an average of 18 months, who have not been convicted of a new crime.	Has pledged to end crimeless revocations and re-invest the money in community-based solutions.
TREATMENT ALTERNATIVES AND DIVERSIONS (TAD): State funding to counties for interventions that get some people with addiction and/or mental health issues into treatment rather than prison.	Has supported a modest increase in TAD funding.	Has pledged to increase TAD funding by at least $15 million/year in his first budget.
END CHILD POVERTY CAMPAIGN: A call for the state to set a 3-part goal to *cut child poverty in half *reduce racial disparities in child poverty by half *establish a yearly measurement and report on our progress	Has not replied about whether or not he supports the 3-part goal.	Supports the 3-part goal.

REGIONAL TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITIES (RTA'S): Wisconsin is one of a few states that does not allow regions to establish RTA's, to ensure planning and resource allocation that benefit all communities.	Signed legislation banning regions from forming RTA's	Supports local control, and allowing regions to form RTA's if they choose to do so.
HEALTH CARE: Many neighboring states, let by Republicans and Democrats have accepted the federal government's offer of expanded Medicaid money to provide health care for low-income people.	Has blocked Wisconsin from accepting Medicaid Expansion funding that would provide health care to many thousands of people.	Would accept Medicaid Expansion money.
