

Wisconsin Academic Decathlon

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE

State Competition
Thursday & Friday, March 12-13, 2020

Glacier Canyon Conference Center
Wilderness Resort. Wisconsin Dells

Twenty top teams will compete at the 37th Annual WIAD State Competition held in Wisconsin Dells. Volunteers will receive e-mailed instructions prior to the event.

Note: All assignments take place in Wisconsin Dells* — except for Essay reading.

Over 100 volunteers are needed

Speech Judges: 15 Pairs of judges (30 total judges needed from 4:00—8:40 P.M. on March 12). Listen, critique and grade the students' prepared and impromptu speeches. A Judges' Handbook is provided online, along with a brief, on-site orientation on the day of the event. A background in public speaking, or affiliation with Toastmasters is a plus. Dinner included.

Speech Timers: Stationed in each speech room (15 needed from 4:00—8:40 P.M. on March 12). Monitor and time each student's speech. Timer directions are provided online and a brief orientation takes place on the day of the event. Comfort with a stop watch is necessary. Dinner included.

Interview Judges: 15 Pairs of judges (30 total judges needed from 4:00—8:40 P.M. on March 12). Jointly interview students; guidelines and sample questions are provided, in addition to an online Judges' Handbook and a brief orientation on the day of the event. A background in Human Resources is a plus. Dinner included.

Essay Judges: Essay rubric is outlined in the online Judges' Handbook. 20 volunteers will read and critique essays written prior to the State Event — Judges will gather at CESA 7 in Green Bay (March 3, starting at 8:30AM). English, or editing background preferred. Refreshments provided.

Test Proctors: Six room monitors are responsible for distributing, collecting and monitoring the testing process at State from 12:30—3:30 P.M. on March 12 (Day 1 of two-day event), and 9:30—11:25 A.M. on March 13 (Day 2). A proctor's Orientation Handbook is provided; leadership skills necessary. Lunch included on Friday only.

Super Quiz Volunteers: 10 assistants needed from 12:15—2:30 P.M. on March 13. Varied assignments include: score verifier, runners, ushers, etc. at the last event of the competition. Lunch included.

If interested in volunteering, please contact:
Janelle Bailey, State Director
jbailey@cesa7.org
920-617-5617